10th September

Season of Creation

1st September to 4th October.

“When we “seek first the kingdom of God” (Mt 6:33), maintaining a right relationship with God, humanity and nature, then justice and peace can flow like a never-failing stream of pure water, nourishing humanity and all creatures”
A video reflection of Pope Francis’ Message for Season of Creation 2023 can be found at catholicbishops.ie – video reflection of Pope Francis’ message for season of creation 2023.

The Eucharist and Creation – Pope Francis, Laudato Si’ 236.

The Eucharist is an act of cosmic love: yes, cosmic! Because even when it is celebrated on the humble altar of a country church, the Eucharist is always in some way celebrated on the altar of the world. The Eucharist joins heaven and earth: it embraces and penetrates all creation. The world which came forth from God’s hands returns to him in blessed and undivided adoration. In the bread of the eucharist creation is projected towards divinisation, towards unification with the Creator himself.’

The Hazel Nut by Julian of Norwich.

‘God showed me a little thing, the size of a hazelnut, lying in the palm of my hand. I looked upon it and wondered, “What might this be?”
And I was answered, “It is all Creation.”
I marvelled how it could last, for I thought it might suddenly fall to nothing, it was so small. And I answered, “It lasts and ever shall last, for God loves it.”
In this little hazelnut, I saw three truths: the first is that God made it; the second is that God loves it; and the third is that God keeps it safe.’

Crosscare

Next Sunday, Crosscare will hold its Annual Appeal for Homeless Prevention Services. This will replace the Share collection at all Masses.

Crosscare seeks your support to prevent more people from losing their homes as the housing and accommodation crisis continues. The number of people in emergency accommodation in Dublin is now well over 9,000; sadly, this includes almost 3,000 children. As well as providing residential homeless services, Crosscare is working with hundreds of families and individuals who are at risk of losing their existing accommodation.

Please support the Crosscare collection if you can next weekend at all Masses in the Archdiocese, or you can donate online at www.crosscare.ie.

Society of African Missions.

Fr Tommy Farety SMA will speak at mass next Sunday the 17th of September.

This year the SMA Missionaries have been assigned the Wicklow area to visit and speak on Mission Awareness.

“St. Kevin's choir is calling!”

Were you ever told in school that you couldn't sing? Have you always wanted to be in a choir but felt you wouldn't be "good enough"?

If you have a song in your heart and a desire to see the long tradition of spiritual music continued in your beautiful church, that is all you need!

No auditions!

Singers and musicians of all ages will be warmly welcomed.

We practice every Tuesday night from Sept until June & sing at 11.30am mass on a Sunday until June. Please ring Angela, choir director on: 0863059946 if you would like any more information or encouragement.
